

Twin Counties Partnership for Healthier Communities

Serving communities in Nash and Edgecombe counties, North Carolina

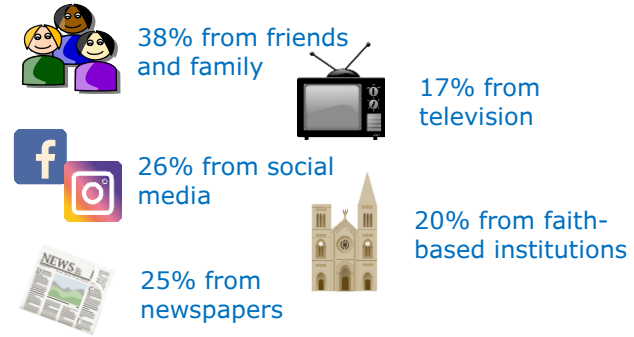

2017 Community Health Survey

In 2017, interviewers from the Partnership conducted a community health survey and asked residents 18 years and older to weigh in on a wide variety of health topics. As a major focus area of the action plan for Twin Counties Partnership for Healthier Communities, how people got health information was examined. Data from the survey is presented in this fact sheet.

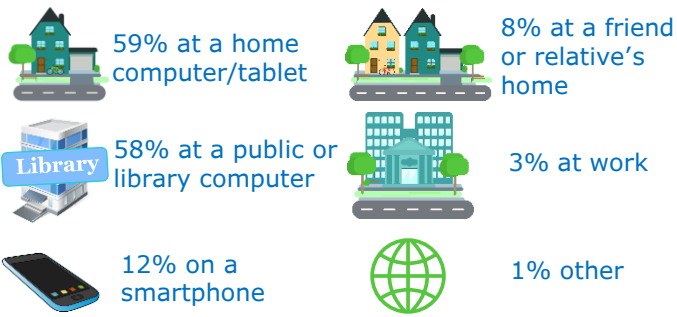

What impacts community health in the Twin Counties? Top five shown.

Crime/safety	39%
Elder care options	28%
Access to health care	24%
Income/employment	19%
Opportunities for youth	18%

How are you likely to find out about health care, 5k, or healthy fun days?*

What ways do you access the internet?*

Connect with Us!

The Partnership wants to connect residents of Edgecombe and Nash counties with the things they need to be healthy on individual, community, economic, and environmental levels.

Visit our website at www.twincountiespartnership.org to learn about upcoming events and to find information about community resources.

How aware of you about programs and services for following topics?	Slightly to very aware	Not aware
Free or low-cost primary care (or medical homes)	62%	38%
Low cost or free facilities for physical activity	93%	7%
Mobile crisis services for residents with mental health or substance use disorder needs	54%	46%
Open access to schools and playgrounds during non-school hours for personal recreation	57%	43%

*Respondents chose all that applied. Totals > 100%

The Twin Counties Partnership for Healthier Communities is a network of like-minded people working together proactively and strategically to promote and support a community culture of health, wellness and unity in the Twin Counties of Edgecombe and Nash, North Carolina. The Partnership has three work groups which spearhead implementation of a multi-year action plan. To learn more, visit the website at www.twincountiespartnership.org.

Collaboration, Communications, & Community Engagement Work Group